HAYES PREDICTS A PANIC.

Major Hayes was depressed Wednesday over the result of the elections. He had, he declared, worked hard for the election of Bryan and his success in Baltimore, and the republican victory was a blow to him.

"I repeat," he said, "that issues of momentous import were involved in this campaign and I am sorry that the American people could not understand them, or, seeing them, failed to appreciate their significance. I cannot understand why Boston should have gone for Bryan and Baltimore for McKinley. I think the republican victory, and I am sorry to say it, was partly due to a measure to the use of money. It may be, though, that the victory will be a costly one."

"I fully believe that there will come in the next year a panic in the stock market, when stocks of inflated value will fall to their true value. This will cause a stringency in the money market and business difficulty. These will be charged up to the party in power and the republican victory may be reversed four years from now."
"The success of the republicans in this State will, in my judgment, have its effects on the municipal elections next spring and the succeeding State elections in the fall. A republican council will not, however, upset any of my plans. I have nothing to ask of the council. I have clearly defined the policy of my administration and I shall carry out my policy during my term of office."
—[Baltimore Sun.]

BREWER OF GALVESTON.—Professor W. J. McGee, formerly of the United States Geological Survey and an authority on coastal geology, writes a most interesting statement in reference to the city of Galveston.

He says: "Galveston was founded on a sand bank, a mere wave-built cape or key, made by waves of average storms during a few centuries. It comprises absolutely nothing but wave-built sand and silt, affording nothing firm enough for a city foundation."
He says the entire Western Gulf coast from Vera Cruz to the Mississippi passes, is the worst coast stretch for foundations in the world. It is liable to just such disasters as has overtaken Galveston. In fact there have been other similar catastrophes now forgotten. Forty-four years ago, Dertiere Island, a health and pleasure resort of New Orleans, with most of its beautiful population—the wealth and beauty of the Creole parishes—was swallowed up by the terrors of the waters.

Professor McGee concludes: "The makers of Galveston erred in building their houses on sands, in planting their city within reach of the waves, in dominating their helpless ones on sinking coast. It behooves them to remember their fellow citizens have the right to be spared the shock of irresistible disaster which would follow rebuilding on these devastated sandbanks."

WOMAN VANQUISHES AN EAGLE.—Mrs. J. C. Callahan, of Anderson Hill, Pa., attracted to the door of her home by the cries of her 2-year-old child, who had wandered into a field, being the child's attempt to carry the bird away. Fearing the eagle had torn the child's face and hands with its talons, and it turned on Mrs. Callahan, but was soon driven off.

[COMMUNICATED.]
Why is it that the dog that wag his tail? It is because the dog is the heavier. If it were otherwise the tail would wag the dog. We read in the papers that Dickinson, Whitney, Cleveland & Co., republican allies, are planning to reorganize the democratic party. God forbid. Let them continue to labor in the republican ranks, and in the course of time we will have enough good republicans to help us. The 7,000,000 loyal democrats object to this city on Tuesday should convince the southern retail dealer that we deserve some recognition from them. We have many successful wholesale houses and if they receive the patronage which they deserve other houses and other trades will enter the field, which will make this a commercial center to be envied—a center of great prominence. Who can foresee what the result of Tuesday's voting will be to us. We cannot hope for success in manufacturing lines until the great trusts are smashed, and that period is remote. It is true that the Business Men's League employ its energies to promote the wholesale trade of Alexandria. Baltimore has voted to reduce our representation in Congress and to give us a force bill, with federal deputies at the poles, and it may be a dusky postmaster, as many of the respectable white republicans voted with us on Tuesday and assisted in swelling the democratic vote here. Strike while the iron is hot and perhaps we can call some nuggets from our defeat outside.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm Cures Others. Why Not You?

My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well.

—ADOLPH L. MILLER, Manchester, N. H. For sale by all druggists.

There is no pleasure in life if you dread going to the table to eat and can't rest at night on account of indigestion. Henry Williams, of Boonville, Ind., says he suffered that way for years, till he commenced the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, and adds: "Now I can eat anything I like and all I want and sleep soundly every night." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat.

We give no reward. An offer of this kind is the means of deception. Test the curative powers of Ely's Cream Balm for the cure of Catarrh, Hay Fever, and cold in the head and you are sure to continue the treatment. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying, does not produce sneezing. It soothes and heals the membrane. Price 50 cents at druggists; by mail, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.
